

Local Area Unemployment Statistics (LAUS)

July 2014

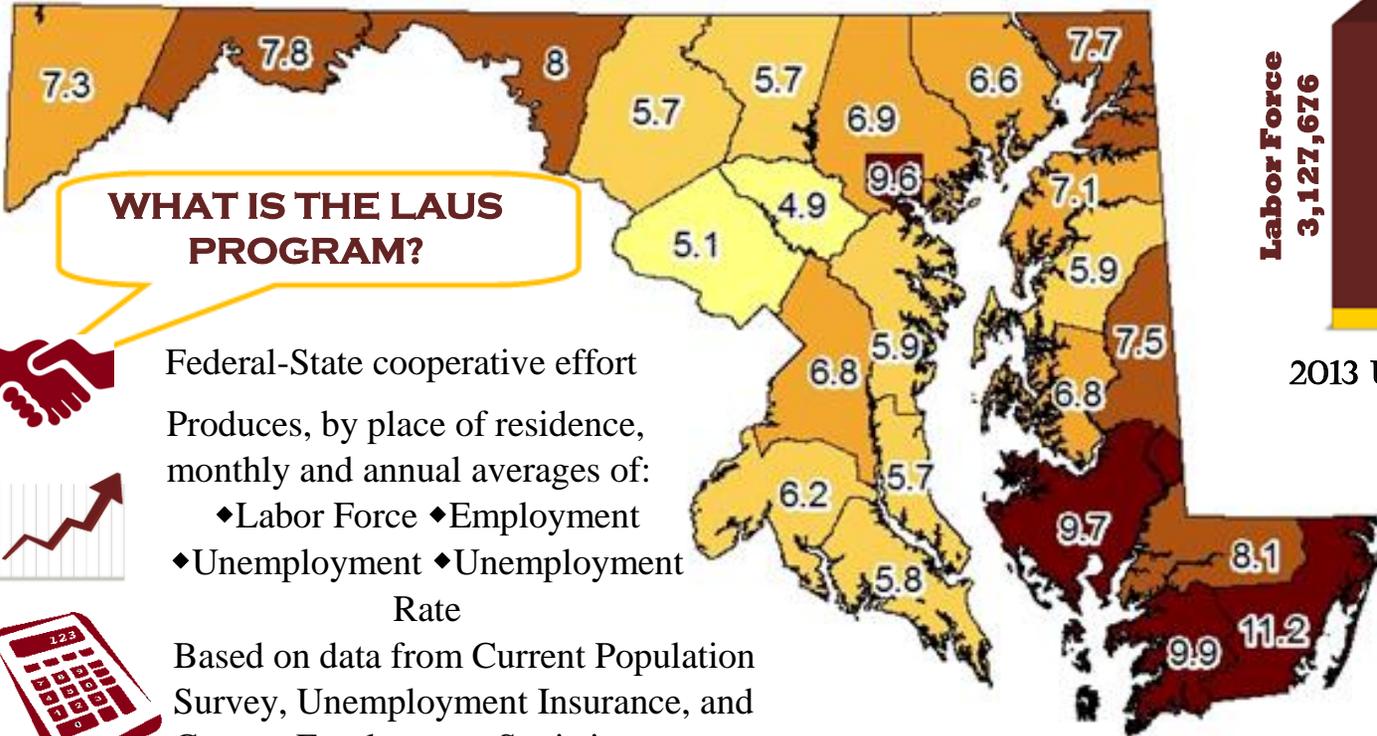

Office of Workforce Information and Performance

Division of Workforce Development and Adult Learning • Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation

2013 ANNUAL AVERAGE UNEMPLOYMENT AND RATE BY COUNTY (NOT SEASONALLY ADJUSTED)

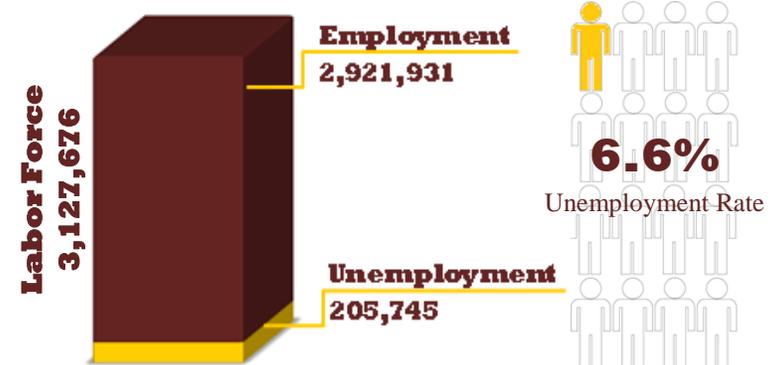

WHAT IS THE LAUS PROGRAM?

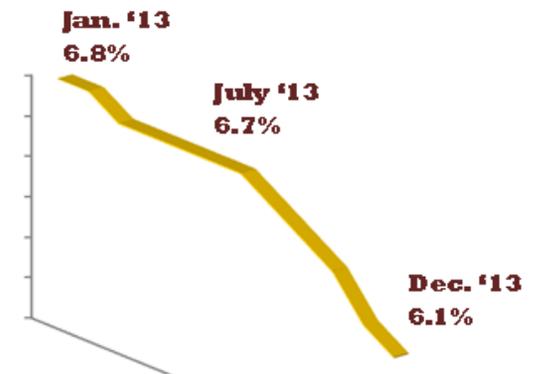

Federal-State cooperative effort
 Produces, by place of residence, monthly and annual averages of:
 ♦ Labor Force ♦ Employment
 ♦ Unemployment ♦ Unemployment Rate

Based on data from Current Population Survey, Unemployment Insurance, and Current Employment Statistics

2013 ANNUAL AVERAGES FOR MARYLAND

2013 UNEMPLOYMENT RATE BY MONTH

HOW IS LAUS DATA USED?

- Federal government uses to allocate funds to states
- State and local government uses for planning
- Private sector uses as economic indicator
- Academics use for research

HOW CAN I USE LAUS DATA?

- Find out the unemployment rate for your county
- Compare your state or county rate to neighboring areas or to the nation
- Use in researching potential residence locations

WHERE AND WHEN CAN I GET THE DATA?

- Data is available at:
 - <http://www.dllr.maryland.gov/lmi/laus>
 - <http://www.bls.gov/lau/>
- State numbers are typically released 3rd Friday of the following month with area numbers the next week.